This season Manager Bothner will have an entirely new production of "A Bunch of Keys" from the fact that every act is new, and a much stronger, cost and new songs, than has ever been seen in this funny play. New specialties, new dances, have been written for this popular farce comedy. At the Barre Opera House, Sept. 23.

That sparkling farce comedy, "A Bunch of Keys," Friday evening at the Barre opera house and it is safe to predict that standing room will be at a premium before the curtain goes up on this humorous play, as it is the best of the late Chas. Hoyt's plays. One of the secrets of the success of "A Bunch of Keys" is that Manager Bothner has jealously guarded against weakening by an indifferent cast or tawdry scenery and in these details an excellent discipline has been maintained.

GRANITEVILLE.

There will be a social dance at Miles' hall, Graniteville, Saturday evening. Price 50 cents. First class music will be furnished by O'Brien's orchestra, assisted by Mr. Bemis. Come everybody and have a good time.

Bennington, Sept. 22.—Mrs. Clara Moon and Robert Baker, arrested in Shaftsbury Monday for adultery and resisting an officer, were each sentenced to three years in prison. Mrs. Moon, who is but 19 years of age, made a desperate assault on an officer with an axe. Baker is 35 years old and has a wife. Mrs. Moon's husband, two years her junior, was one of the arresting party.

PROBING AN ACCIDENT.

Railroad Commission Trying to Find Out Cause of Burlington Collision.

Burlington, Sept. 21.—The state board of railway commissioners, Fuller C. Smith of St. Albans, H. S. Bingham of Bennington and G. T. Howard of Craftsbury, held a meeting at Van Ness House yesterday afternoon for the purpose of investigating the collision which occurred in the railroad yards in Burlington August 21. The witnesses are being examined by State's Attorney Leary. The collision was between a Central Vermont passenger train and an engine, and was due to a misplaced switch.

C. M. Colburn of Montpelier, Thomas Hanley of Richmond and E. W. Ring of White River Junction, the express agent, besides several others were shaken up and bruised as a result of the accident. The train crew and other railroad employees about the yard were examined for the purpose of finding out just how the accident was caused.

TO LIGHT THE FORT.

Big Contract for Wiring Fort Ethan Allen Building to Be Given.

Burlington, Sept. 21.—As soon as the specifications are received from the hands of the printers, Constructing Quartermaster Capt. T. B. Lamoreux, U. S. A., will begin advertising for bids for a large number of contracts, relative to the installation of electric lights for the garrison. All of the buildings recently constructed are wired, but the old buildings, over 50 in number, will require wiring and fixtures. The proposals will also ask for bids to place through service wires in the reservation for an outdoor lighting system to consist of are lights on every street in the post. This is the most important contract Captain Lamoreux has had and one which the post is sadly in need of. At present the quarters are lighted by oil lamps and the streets by the same process.

NEARLY 300 MEMBERS.

Large Attendance at Historical and Telegraph Corps Societies.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 20.—The twenty-fourth annual meeting of the Old Timers' Historical Association and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps began here yesterday with an attendance of nearly 300 members from all parts of the United States and Canada. President E. C. Adams of New York presided. The gathering of telegraph corps was presided over by Vice President William L. Ives of New York in the absence of President William B. Wilson of Philadelphia.

OUT OF THE ORDINARY.

The prize lie of the year comes from Kansas, by way of the Boston Globe. The Globe says: "Elias Buckler, a farmer living near Delphos, Kan., has a remarkably luxuriant growth of whiskers. Recently while working in the fields a swarm of bees came along and settled in this growth. Mr. Buckler sat down and remained quiet. When all the bees had settled in his beard he slowly arose, walked home, and with the assistance of others, hived the buzzers."

A small boy living at Anniston, Ala., proved himself a good deal of a hero the other day as well as having a level head. He had gone to bed when something stung him on one of his fingers. He got up quickly and saw a big rattlesnake near his bed, which had crawled into his room in some unknown way. The boy realized that he was close to death and ran and got an axe with which he cut off his finger just below the spot where the snake had struck. His quick action saved his life, but it must have taken a lot of pluck.

A new bunco game is being worked at the agricultural shows in the West which in time is sure to find its way East. A man mounts a platform and offers $10 to the man who can show the biggest roll of bills. It looks like such easy money that several "hoss" owners at once go down into their pockets. The hawker takes the roll, counts it, takes what he wants and gives it back. Then a confederate hands up a bale of money, takes the $10, and both he and the hawker suddenly remember they have another engagement.

Notice.

Having sold my business to M. L. Walker, I shall for a short time have office room at the store for the purpose of collecting my bills. All accounts must be settled by Sept. 25th, as after that date I shall be obliged to leave same with an attorney for collection. J. W. Holton, 159 No. Main street, Hale block.

Notice to All Union Men.

That the Congregational Church and the Baker house at Williamstown are non-union obs.

Gilbertson's orchestra will furnish music at the presentation of a "Bunch of Keys" at the opera house Friday evening. Tickets now on sale.

COLLEGE ATHLETE'S TALK

AMUSES JIM JEFFRIES.

Champion Reads About Ralph Rose and His "Pipe", and Makes a Few Remarks.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 21.—Ralph Rose, the college athlete who aspires to defeat Champion Jeffries, hails from Ukiah, Cal. Rose is 18 years old, which makes him 11 years younger than the champion. He is 6 feet 7 inches in height, and six inches taller than Jeffries. The latter weighs about 230 pounds in condition. If he ever fights Rose, he will meet a man 55 pounds heavier.

"Rose is certainly not lacking in conceit," said Jeffries this morning, after he had finished reading the college's statement. "Just listen to this. He says he has a stronger right arm, can hit a harder punch, is swifter on his feet, and if he hits me on the neck he will kill me. That's going some. He may be all he says he is, but you can say that I would like to try Rose out just the same. When his people learn his intention of fighting me I suppose they will make a howl and are liable to queer it. I hope they don't. I hope he sticks to his plan, but I can't promise that I will be champion when he leaves college, for I understand that he has three years yet at the university.

"I expect to be champion, but I may be dead or defeated by that time. If I am on top, Rose can rest assured that I will be ready for him. Wouldn't it be funny to see me fight a fellow 50 pounds bigger than I am?"

And Jeff looked himself over.

TO DOUBT THIS

Is To Disbelieve The Evidence Of Barre Citizens.

L. H. Hooker, carpenter and builder, of 181 Prospect street, says: "What I first stated in the winter of 1897 about Doan's Kidney Pills, said at E. A. Drown's, was not only absolutely true, but today, in the month of May, 1902, I just as emphatically endorse the preparation as I did when it first came to my notice. I have good reasons for doing so. I had consulted physicians and used every known kidney remedy which came to my notice and which my friends suggested, but still the stopping of the dull, almost constant pain just over my kidneys was remotely in the distance. If I sat down for a short time it made me nervous and I was compelled to get up and walk about for the slight comfort that makeshift afforded. In addition to the backache, trouble with the kidney secretions was very observable at night. When I commenced to use Doan's Kidney Pills my condition I considered serious. I knew by the direct action of the pills on the kidneys that they were going to the root of the trouble and I continued the treatment until I had used five boxes. During the time which has passed, and it is over five years, I have had occasion to appeal to Doan's Kidney Pills and I have never appealed to them in vain. I have recommended them to my friends and acquaintances, who have used them with such good results that they positively state they are an excellent preparation."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
